CQG wins Colorado Governor's Award for Excellence in Exporting

Denver, CO, May 5, 2006 – Colorado governor Bill Owens has announced the winners of the Excellence in Exporting award, recognizing companies demonstrating outstanding performance in international business. CQG, Inc. won in the services category.

The award, sponsored by the Colorado Office of Economic Development and International Trade, will be presented to CQG at a May 17 World Trade Day luncheon at Denver's Adams Mark Hotel.

CQG currently has customers in 61 countries and staff in London, Paris, Tokyo, Frankfurt and Moscow. CQG began exporting to Europe in 1988 and to Japan in 1998. In 2006, CQG's reach will expand to include Singapore and Sydney.

"We have seen significant growth in the Asian Pacific regions, particularly over the last 18 months," said Simon Haslam, CQG's head of international sales.

"The Middle East is our next growth market, as we expect more revenue from that region with the Derivatives Exchange having opened in Dubai last year," Haslam said.

CQG has a global presence in the trading community, attending Futures and Options World trade shows in Singapore, London, and Milan, and Technical Analysis seminars in Moscow, Tokyo, Sydney, and Paris.

Representatives from CQG work closely with technical analysis institutes in many countries, and attend conferences presented by the International Federation of Technical Analysis. Almost 40% of CQG's total sales are a result of exporting. CQG's product development staff includes 215 programmers and managers worldwide.
